SEC FOOTBALL

As college football celebrates its 125th anniversary in 1994, the Southeastern Conference looks to build upon the contributions its members have made to this grand game.

National championship teams, Heisman Trophy winners, All-America performers and legendary coaches have given loyal SEC fans plenty to celebrate since the formation of the conference in 1933.

With such a storied past, it is no wonder the SEC established the all-time NCAA attendance mark in 1993. A total of 4,897,564 fans attended a game at an SEC stadium last year, representing almost one-fifth of all Division IA spectators last season.

SEC fans have come to expect great things from their league: almost twice as many bowl appearances as any other conference in the nation and the best non-conference winning percentage for 10 of the last 14 years.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

The SEC is the only conference in the nation to return three different placekickers who earned first-team All-America honors during the 1993 season. In addition, the conference also boasts the returning consensus All-America punter from a year ago.

Florida's Judd Davis (UPI All-America) received the 1993 Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top placekicker. Alabama's Michael Proctor (Football News All-America) led the nation with an average of 1.83 field goals per game. Tennessee senior John Becksvoort (Football Writers and Scripps Howard All-America) won the league scoring title last year with a mark of 8.6 points per game.

Auburn punter Terry Daniel enjoyed a record-breaking year in 1993 and finished second in the nation with an average of 46.9 yards per kick.

SEC IN PRESEASON POLLS

Seven of the SEC's 12 schools have been mentioned in at least one 1994 preseason poll.

IN A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

The SEC has long been known for its great coaches through the years: Bryant, Dooley, Vaught, Jordan and Neyland to name a few.

In 1992 and 1993 the SEC produced the consensus National Coach of the Year. This marked the second time in league history the honor was received by a conference coach in consecutive seasons (1970-Charlie McClendon, LSU and 1971-Paul "Bear" Bryant, Alabama).

Auburn head coach Terry Bowden concluded a story-book inaugural season by becoming the only first-year Division I coach to go undefeated. Bowden earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Tigers to a perfect 11-0 record in 1993.

Alabama's Gene Stallings, who led the Crimson Tide to a 13-0 worksheet and the 1992 National Championship, became the SEC's eighth coach to capture national honors.

Two other coaches patrolling the SEC sidelines in 1994 have distinguished themselves as the National Coach of the Year during their career: Arkansas skipper Danny Ford (1981) and Mississippi State's Jackie Sherrill (1980).

STATE OF THE SEC

Four schools have won or shared the SEC football title over the last five years, while a sixth captured two league crowns before joining the conference. A comparison of SEC teams over the last five and 10 years follows:

Last 5 Years (1989-93)

	W-L-T	Pct	Conference Championships	Bowl Games	Final AP Poll	AP Top 10

Note: First SEC season for Arkansas and South Carolina was 1992. Previously Arkansas was member of Southwest Conference and South Carolina was independent in football. Final AP Poll consisted of 20 teams 1984-88 and 25 teams 1989-93.

SEC Championship Game December 3

The SEC's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the USF+G Insurance Sugar Bowl. The third-annual title game is set for December 3 and will again be nationally televised by ABC Sports at 3:30 p.m. ET.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The SEC Championship Game is also the only Division IA football contest in the nation which may be decided by a tie-breaking system. In the event of a tie at the end of regulation, the SEC will implement NCAA Rule 3-1-3 (Extra Periods) which was altered by the NCAA Football Rules Committee to allow teams to have a tie breaker with as few exceptions as possible to rules in regular periods.

An extra period shall consist of two series with both teams putting the ball in play at their opponent's 25-yard line. Each team retains the ball until it scores or fails to make a first down. The team scoring the greater number of points during regulation and the extra period(s) shall be declared the winner.

Divisional Representative Tie-Breaker

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative:

All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

A. TWO TEAM TIE

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Records of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-divisional teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

B. THREE (OR MORE) TEAM TIE

(Once the tie has been reduced to two teams, go to the two team tie breaker format)

1. Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams.
2. Record of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-divisional teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

SEC Bowl Agreements

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send five of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 1994 season.

The winner of the SEC Football Championship Game will continue to serve as the host team for the USF+G Insurance Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, La. The SEC began its long-standing agreement with the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 1977, when Georgia battled Pittsburgh.

The CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl has the second selection in the SEC bowl process. The three-year agreement was announced January 29, 1992. The Orlando, Fla., bowl is allowed to select an SEC representative from the following: (A) SEC Championship Game runner-up; (B) Conference team that has an equal or better overall record as the SEC Championship Game runner-up; (C) Conference team ranked within five places in the USA Today/CNN Coaches Poll of either participant in the SEC Championship Game as of the first Monday after the regular season ends. If presented with more than one option, the bowl will designate which team it will select that same day.

The Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl joined the SEC bowl mix on May 15, 1992, with a three-year agreement to select third to secure a conference team to play in the Jacksonville, Fla., bowl. The Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga., announced May 4, 1993, it would select fourth in the SEC bowl process. The Carquest Bowl released June 1, 1993, it opted to pick fifth for filling its Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., event.

Under NCAA postseason football requirements, all teams in bowl games must win a minimum of six games against Division IA opponents during the regular season. (A complete directory of bowl games may be found on pages 294-295).

SEC Football On JP Sports

The Southeastern Conference signed an agreement with Jefferson Pilot Sports (JP Sports) on February 27, 1992, to televise SEC football through the 1995 season. The Charlotte, N.C., company holds the rights to televise 12 or 13 games annually throughout the nine-state SEC area on a syndicated basis for the next two years.

In 1992, the first year of airing SEC football, JP Sports secured 52 markets in the nine-state area and averaged 1.04 million households. Another 350,000+ homes were reached through cable and over-the-air distribution.

JP Sports, which has also extended its agreement to broadcast SEC Basketball through 1995-96, will air a conference football game in the early Saturday afternoon time period (12:40 p.m. Eastern) as allowed by the College Football Association. Games will be selected 12 days in advance beginning with contests scheduled for September 24.

Bob Carpenter and Tim Foley return to the broadcast booth, while Bob Kesling will again handle halftime, post-game and sideline coverage. Carpenter, who will describe the play-by-play, has been associated with ESPN since 1988. He served as play-by-play announcer on that network's prime-time college football schedule in 1988 and host of "College Game Day" in 1989. Since 1990 Carpenter has been an announcer mainstay on ESPN's major league baseball coverage.

Foley, an All-American defensive back at Purdue, is back for his 10th season of SEC football analysis. He played 11 seasons with the Miami Dolphins before retiring in 1981. Foley was recently named to the 25th Anniversary All-Dolphin Team.

Kesling is sports director at WBIR-TV in Knoxville, Tenn., and has worked numerous SEC events through the years including both the men's and women's basketball tournaments.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

SEC Commissioner Roy Kramer is joined by 1993-94 H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete Tammy Newlon of Mississippi State and Peter Duitsman of South Carolina. The two award winners were honored at the 1994 SEC Spring Meeting and will each receive a $10,000 postgraduate scholarship through funds provided by the SEC and the USF+G Sugar Bowl.

History of the Southeastern Conference

Throughout its 62-year history the Southeastern Conference has been a leader in the integration of athletic competition and higher education.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Intercollegiate athletics has encountered many challenges in the 1990s and again the SEC provided guidance. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. Baseball was the most popular campus sport, but the American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky, then known as Kentucky A&M, was host to the contest in which Transylvania College, then called Kentucky University, upset Centre College 13 3/4 to 0. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania a three-game series (winning 7 1/2 to 1, then losing 1 to 2 and 2 1/2 to 3 3/4). By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College. The Commodores won 9-6 in a game with nine players on each team. Basketball became an intercollegiate sport in 1901 and in 1908 Vanderbilt was meeting Columbia and Yale intersectionally.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895

SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The Office of the Commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940, as an extension of the authority of the presidents. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in four sports (baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross-country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1953) and indoor track (1957). A men's all-sports champion (Bernie Moore Trophy) has been awarded every year since 1973-74.

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. A women's all-sports champion has been awarded every year since 1983-84.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's and 10 women's sports:

Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor).

Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

- The SEC placed at least one team in the Top 5 nationally in 16 of 19 sports.

- Last year, an SEC-record 100 league teams participated in NCAA Championships. SEC student-athletes earned an all-time best 41 individual national titles, while All-America honors were bestowed on an SEC-high 427 individuals as the league provided at least one All-America in 17 of 19 sports.

Providing a balance between athletics and academics, the Southeastern Conference has long been a national leader both on the field of competition and in the classroom. Since the conference's formation in 1933, the SEC's member institutions have built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country.

The 1993-94 academic year will be recorded as another highly successful chapter in the 61-year history of the conference. SEC squads captured seven national team titles during the course of 1993-94, just two crowns off the record-setting pace of a year ago. In all, the SEC has won 28 national team championships over the past four years for an average of seven per season.

The 1993-94 national champions for the SEC included: Arkansas men's basketball, men's cross country, men's indoor track and men's outdoor track; Georgia women's tennis; LSU women's indoor track and women's outdoor track.

Overall, the SEC placed at least one team in the top 13 nationally in 18 of 19 conference sports and in the top five in 16 of 19 sports. The 19-sport breakdown included seven national champions, two NCAA runners-up as well as two third place, one fourth place and one 13th place NCAA finish. The SEC also boasted an NCAA semifinal squad in three sports as well as a No. 4 final poll ranking in football and two NCAA College World Series berths.

The NCAA runners-up were Arkansas women's cross country and Alabama gymnastics. In addition, the league posted one-two national showings in men's indoor track (Arkansas and Tennessee) and women's indoor track (LSU and Alabama).

The SEC established a new high for NCAA Championship participation during the 1993-94 season with 100 teams advancing to their respective national tournament. SEC student-athletes earned an all-time best 41 individual national titles, while All-America honors were bestowed on an SEC-high 427 individuals as the league provided at least one All-America in 17 of 19 sports.

Additionally, the SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient record was shattered for the sixth-straight year as 660 student-athletes were honored for their work in the classroom.

Florida won its third-straight Bernie Moore All-Sports Trophy, symbolic of the conference's premier men's athletic program. Georgia won the Women's All-Sports Trophy for the third time in the last five years and the sixth time overall. The Gator program collected five SEC titles while Georgia picked up three overall. The remaining SEC championships were won by Arkansas (five), Alabama (two), Tennessee (two), Auburn (one) and Vanderbilt (one). Both the Bernie Moore and Women's All-Sports Trophies were discontinued following the 1993-94 academic year.

On the national level, the SEC was tied for third among all conferences with four programs ranked in the inaugural Sears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida headlined all SEC squads with a fourth-place showing. Tennessee finished 13th, Alabama was 15th and Georgia rounded out the SEC's showing at 21st. Points are awarded for a team's finish in 10 men's core sports (basketball, cross country, tennis, baseball, golf, track and field, football, soccer, swimming and wrestling as well as two wildcard sports) and 10 women's core sports (basketball, cross country, tennis, volleyball, track and field, softball, swimming, golf, soccer, field hockey and two wildcard sports). The Pac-10 led all leagues with six teams ranked in the Top 25.

A brief sport-by-sport summary of the 1993-94 year follows:

Baseball - The SEC sent multiple teams to the College World Series for the fourth time overall, the third time in the last five years, and extended its string of four-straight years leading the nation in NCAA Tournament bids (Auburn, Florida, LSU, Tennessee). Tennessee won its first SEC title since 1951 as well as the Eastern Division crown, while LSU picked up the Western Division title.

Men's Basketball - SEC Champion Arkansas won the league's first NCAA Championship since 1978, while Eastern Division Champion Florida gave the SEC two Final Four teams for the first time in history. The SEC led all leagues with a .800 NCAA Tournament winning percentage. The league sent half its teams to postseason action for the 16th-straight year as Alabama and Kentucky rounded out the league's NCAA entries and Miss. State and Vanderbilt (finals) appeared in the NIT. The SEC finished with a nation-high three teams ranked in the USA Today/CNN/Coaches Top 13. Arkansas' Nolan Richardson was National Coach of the Year.

Women's Basketball - Alabama became the fifth different SEC squad to reach the NCAA Final Four, giving the league a national semifinal squad in 12 of 13 seasons under the NCAA, while the league's six entries led the nation for the 12th time in the last 13 years. The SEC also kept alive its streak of at least four teams ranked in the final Associated Press poll for the 13th-straight season with SEC Champion Tennessee (first), Vanderbilt (12th), Alabama (16th), Florida (20th) and Ole Miss (23rd) appearing in the rankings. Tennessee's Pat Summitt was Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Men's Cross Country - Arkansas began its quest for a third-straight SEC and NCAA Triple Crown by winning both men's cross country titles. The NCAA title was the fourth-straight for the Hogs and the seventh in the last 10 years, while the league championship was the third-straight for the program.

Women's Cross Country - For the fifth time in the last six years, the SEC had a team finish first or second at the NCAA Championships as conference winner Arkansas garnered its third-straight runner-up finish. The Razorback sweep of the men's and women's SEC crowns was the fifth time in the last six years the same school has claimed both trophies.

Football - Florida defeated Alabama in a rematch of the 1992 SEC Championship game for the SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth as the league sent four squads overall to bowls (Alabama - Gator, Kentucky - Peach, Tennessee - Citrus). SEC schools established the NCAA single-season attendance record as 4,897,564 fans visited league stadiums in 1993. The SEC led the nation in non-conference winning percentage for the 10th time in the last 14 seasons and Auburn's Terry Bowden was consensus National Coach of the Year.

Men's Golf - Three SEC squads finished in the NCAA Tournament Top 10 for the 3rd time in league history as SEC Champion Florida (third), Arkansas (fourth) and Auburn (seventh) completed the league's top 10 entries. LSU (22nd) rounded out the league's tourney field and gave the SEC four NCAA teams for the fifth time in the last seven years.

Women's Golf - Georgia won the SEC crown but did not advance beyond NCAA regional play. Tennessee (13th) and Florida (15th) gave the SEC at least two NCAA teams for the 10th-straight year. The league has now had a top five NCAA team finish and at least one top five individual finish in 11 of 12 seasons.

Gymnastics - The league continued its dominance of the sport, placing four teams in the NCAA top 10 and winning all five individual titles for the second-straight year. Alabama finished second while SEC Champion Georgia placed third. Florida (sixth) and LSU (eighth) rounded out the league's NCAA entries. Kentucky earned its share of the spotlight as its at-large qualifier won three individual national crowns.

Men's Indoor Track - Arkansas continued on the road to the track triple crown winning its 11th-straight NCAA Indoor Track title to pace nine SEC entries in the field. The Hogs' 54-point margin of victory over second-place Tennessee was the largest ever in the event. The SEC's four Top 10 finishes (Georgia, tie-sixth; Kentucky, tie-ninth) marked the most in league history. Other NCAA team finishes included: Ole Miss (t19th), South Carolina (t19th), Alabama (t30th), Florida (t30th), LSU (t53rd). Individually, the league won one of 14 events.

Women's Indoor Track - The SEC boasted five Top 20 finishes, including a one-two finish as defending national champion LSU won the league's sixth title in the last eight years and SEC Champion Alabama finished runner-up. The title was the fifth for LSU since 1987. Tennessee (11th), Arkansas (t20th), Kentucky (t20th), Georgia (t27th), Ole Miss (t43rd) and Auburn (49th) rounded out the SEC's scoring. The league won 11 of 16 individual titles.

Men's Outdoor Track - Arkansas completed its quest for the SEC and NCAA track triple crowns by winning both meets. It marked the sixth-straight year the national champion hailed from the SEC. League teams secured four NCAA Top 10 showings, marking the third-straight year the SEC has had at least four Top 10 squads with Tennessee (third), LSU (sixth) and Georgia (eighth). Florida (t13th), Kentucky (t13th), Alabama (15th),

Nicole Haislett, Florida
1993-94 SEC Female Athlete of the Year

Corliss Williamson, Arkansas
1993-94 SEC Male Athlete of the Year

Mississippi State (20th), Ole Miss (32nd) and South Carolina (65) rounded out the SEC's scoring. League competitors won four of 19 individual titles and Arkansas' John McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year for both indoor and outdoor track.

Women's Outdoor Track - LSU won its eighth-straight NCAA title with a 43-point margin of victory. Tennessee (fifth) was the league's only other Top 10 squad. SEC Champion Alabama (12th), Arkansas (23rd), Auburn (t42nd), Florida (t42nd), Ole Miss (50th) and South Carolina (55th) finished the SEC's scoring. Individually, the SEC captured four of 19 titles at the meet. LSU's Pat Henry was the indoor and outdoor track National Coach of the Year.

Women's Soccer - Vanderbilt captured the inaugural SEC Championship and all four league squads finished at or above .500. Arkansas and Vanderbilt both ranked among the Southern Region's Top 10.

Men's Swimming - For only the third time in SEC history, four league teams finished in the Top 10 at the NCAA Championships, led by SEC Champion Auburn's fourth-place showing. Florida (eighth), Tennessee (ninth) and Alabama (t10th) rounded out the group. Georgia (16th), South Carolina (19th) and Arkansas (t20th) gave the league at least five Top 20 appearances for the third-straight year and the fifth time since 1986. LSU (t29th) was the SEC's final placer as the league took three of 21 individual titles and 78 All-America honors.

Women's Swimming - Fresh off its ninth-consecutive SEC Championship, Florida finished third at the NCAA meet, marking the Lady Gators' 13th-straight NCAA top-three showing. Auburn (fifth) and Alabama (ninth) gave the SEC a trio of Top 10 teams for the third-straight year and the fourth time since 1985. Overall eight SEC teams placed at the NCAA Championship including: Tennessee (14th), Georgia (15th), LSU (18th), Kentucky (19th) and South Carolina (28th). It marked the ninth-straight time at least six SEC schools scored at nationals as conference performers won five of 21 individual NCAA crowns.

Men's Tennis - The SEC led all conferences in NCAA Tournament bids for the fifth time in the last six seasons as nine squads (Arkansas, Auburn, SEC and SEC Tournament Champion Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee) participated in the 46-team field, including three of the top eight seeds. Mississippi State paced all SEC squads, reaching the national semifinals. The league boasted eight of the Top 15 teams in the final ITA poll including: Mississippi State (third), Georgia (fifth), Florida (tie-eighth, Ole Miss (t10th), Tennessee (13th), Kentucky (14), Auburn (t15th) and South Carolina (t15th). LSU (22nd) rounded out the Top 25. Individually, the SEC won the NCAA singles and doubles titles for the second-straight year. The final Top 25 ITA individual rankings featured nine SEC singles players and eight SEC doubles tandems.

Women's Tennis - SEC and SEC Tournament Champion Georgia won the school's first NCAA tennis title and led the league's three tournament entries (Florida and Kentucky). An SEC player won the league's third-straight NCAA singles title while a conference doubles team finished runner-up for the NCAA title. Final ITA Top 25 team rankings included: Georgia (first), Florida (fifth), Kentucky (12th), Ole Miss (16th) and South Carolina (24th). Individually, the league accounted for five of the Top 25 singles, including a best of No. 3 and five of the Top 25 doubles (high of first) in the final ITA poll.

Volleyball - SEC and SEC Tournament Champion Florida extended the league's streak of NCAA Final Four appearances to four-straight years with its second-consecutive berth as the SEC tied its record of four teams (Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee) in the 32-team field.

SEC Headquarters

The Southeastern Conference office moved to its current headquarters in downtown Birmingham October 15, 1991.

The two-story structure was designed specifically to house the SEC's 25-person staff as well as accommodate the needs of the various committees, coaches and administrative groups which meet at the conference office on a regular basis. In addition, the office building includes displays honoring the current champion in each of the 19 conference sports, exhibits featuring the 12 member institutions and the league's history as well as a research library.

The multi-faceted operation of the SEC Office includes certifying the eligibility of all student-athletes, managing championship events, enhancing academic opportunities for student-athletes, monitoring NCAA and SEC compliance, coordinating officiating assignments, negotiating television contracts, distributing conference revenue, cultivating corporate sponsorships and coordinating media and public relations efforts.

The SEC headquarters, which contains more than 30,000-square feet of working space, was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located two blocks from Interstate 59-20, adjacent to the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center, and is a five-minute drive from the airport.

The office of the commissioner, formed in 1940, was originally located in Jackson, Miss. Upon the appointment of Bernie Moore as commissioner in 1946, the SEC headquarters relocated to Birmingham's Redmont Hotel. In October 1967 the conference office moved to the Central Bank Building in downtown Birmingham, before moving to the Riverchase Galleria Tower in May 1988.

The SEC Office (above) spans half a block and was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located at 2201 Civic Center Boulevard within the newly-developed City Center. The foyer entrance (left) is highlighted by a two-story glass rotunda. It features school banners, championship pedestals and links the two galleries which display the member institutions' exhibits.

ROY KRAMER

SEC Commissioner

A prominent leader in intercollegiate athletics, Roy Foster Kramer became the sixth commissioner of the Southeastern Conference January 10, 1990.

During his tenure at the helm of the SEC, the conference has experienced unparalleled growth. In 1993-94 alone, the SEC won seven national championships and distributed an all-time high $34.36 million to the member institutions, more than double the amount ($16.3 million) distributed in his first year as commissioner. Most recently, Kramer negotiated a multi-sport national television package with CBS Sports, featuring men's and women's basketball from 1994-95 through 2000-2001 and football from 1996 to 2000.

Within seven months of his appointment, the conference announced plans for expansion, adding Arkansas and South Carolina officially on July 1, 1991. Following expansion, Kramer guided the league in formulating divisional play and the first Division IA conference football championship game. He has since also helped secure football bowl agreements for the SEC's top five teams through the 1994 season. In addition, he has been instrumental in the creation of new scheduling formats for all sports as well as the implementation of coaches educational seminars.

On the national level, Kramer served two terms on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee which selects the 64-team field for the NCAA Tournament and administers all tournament games. He was chairman of the committee for the 1992 NCAA Tournament. Kramer served a four-year term (1989-93) on the NCAA Basketball Television Negotiating Committee that was responsible for securing the seven-year $1 billion contract with CBS Sports.

Kramer, a member of the NACDA Executive Committee, also serves on the NCAA Committee on Infractions. During his career he has distinguished himself as a member of several other NCAA committees including, the Special Advisory Committee to Review Distribution of Revenue, the Committee for National Drug Testing Policy, the Investment Committee and the Select Committee to Study Intercollegiate Athletics, which proposed the President's Commission. He also served as chairman of the NCAA Men's Committee on Committees in 1987 and 1988.

During his 12 years (1978-90) as athletic director at Vanderbilt University, Kramer was a leader in establishing conference policies. He is a past chairman of the league's athletic directors and was influential in bringing the SEC Basketball Tournament to Nashville in 1984, the first sellout in tournament history. In addition Kramer helped land the 1991 SEC Tournament for Vanderbilt, as well as the first and second rounds of the 1982 and 1989 NCAA Tournaments.

Other highlights of his Vanderbilt tenure include a $6 million addition and renovation of McGugin Center, which houses the complete Commodore athletic program and the construction of Vanderbilt Stadium in 1981. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in February, 1989.

After a nine-year stint as a high school head football coach in Michigan, which included three state championships, Kramer joined the coaching staff at Central Michigan University. Just two years later he became the head coach at CMU and compiled an 83-32-2 (.718) record in 11 seasons. In 1974 he was tabbed NCAA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Chippewas to a 12-1 record and the Division II National Championship.

Kramer obtained his bachelor's degree from

Maryville (Tenn.) College in 1953 following a standout career as a football lineman and wrestler. He received the school's Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1982. He added a master's at the University of Michigan in 1954 and then spent three years in the U.S. Army, rising from a non-commissioned officer to a first lieutenant in the European NATO Command.

The Maryville, Tenn., native was born October 30, 1929. He is married to the former Sara Jo Emert. They have three children (Steve, Sara Gray Cassell and Jane House) and six grandchildren.

Service Education Commitment

The Southeastern Conference will distribute approximately $34.36 million to the 12 member institutions in the revenue sharing plans for the 1993-94 fiscal year, which ends Aug. 31, 1994.

The $34.36 million is the highest total ever distributed in SEC history, edging the $34.34 million distributed to the schools in 1992-93.

The revenue sharing plans include money generated by football television, bowls, the SEC Football Championship, basketball television, the SEC Basketball Tournament and the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

Broken down by categories and rounded off, the $34.36 million was derived from $13.7 million for football television, $4.5 million from bowls, $4.9 million from the SEC Football Championship, $3.8 million from basketball television, $2.6 million from the SEC Basketball Tournament and $4.86 million from the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

The amount distributed to each school which participated in all revenue sharing ranged from a high of $2.9 million to a low of $2.7 million.

Not included in the $34.36 million was $2.7 million redistributed to the institutions by the CFA for participation in the 1993 television package, $3.7 million retained by the institutions participating in bowls and $360,000 divided among all 12 institutions by the NCAA for academic enhancement.

Other yearly money distributions, since 1980, are as follows: 1980 ($4.1 million); 1981 ($5.57 million); 1982 ($7.54 million); 1983 ($9.53 million); 1984 ($18.4 million); 1985 ($9.34 million); 1986 ($13.1 million); 1987 ($13.56 million); 1988 ($14.34 million); 1989 ($13.85 million); 1990 ($16.3 million); 1991 ($20.6 million); 1992 ($27.7 million) and 1993 ($34.34 million).

The SEC's financial support of its institutions ensures the continued quality of academic and athletic opportunities for student-athletes. The Conference has developed the following programs to better serve its membership:

- The SEC conducts Coaches Orientation Programs twice yearly at the SEC headquarters to supplement existing institutional orientation programs and to enhance the professional development of coaches. The one-day programs, which began June 15, 1993, were developed with input from Conference Compliance Coordinators, Faculty Athletics Representatives, Athletics Directors and the SEC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.

- The SEC was the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC's member schools are selected to serve on the committee which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.

- The annual SEC Summer Workshop is designed to review administrative procedures of the Conference. Topics of discussion include how to fill out all required forms, due dates for submitting materials to the Conference office, eligibility rules, financial aid, criteria for satisfactory progress and transmission of squad lists. Participants include: Faculty Athletics Representatives, Senior Women's Administrators, Directors of Financial Aid, Directors of Admissions, Registrars and Compliance Coordinators.

- The SEC hosts youth clinics each year in conjunction with the men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball tournaments. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches.

- The 12 member institutions of the SEC provide over $23 million in scholarships for more than 3,300 student-athletes each year.

The SEC, in conjunction with the USF&G Sugar Bowl, annually awards post-graduate scholarships totaling $70,000 to 12 student-athletes.

The top male and female nominee each receive the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar Athlete Award, named for the league's fourth commissioner and a $10,000 scholarship. Ten additional student-athletes (five male and five female) are each awarded $5,000 to continue their education.

The SEC television contract with Jefferson-Pilot for men's basketball and football also guarantees at least $80,000 to be distributed to the participating schools through the JP Player of the Game program. This money is allocated for the general scholarship fund of each institution.

SEC Divisions

The 5-2-1 schedule format, implemented in 1992, allows each school to play all five division opponents along with two permanent and one rotating non-division opponent each year. Schools will play each rotating non-division opponent two years (home and away) before the next opponent appears on its schedule. This ensures every SEC member plays at least twice during an eight-year period.

Division alignment and schedule format follows:

Eastern Division

Florida South Carolina
Georgia Tennessee
Kentucky Vanderbilt

Western Division

SEC Awards

The Bernie Moore and Women's All-Sports Trophies

The Bernie Moore and the Women's All-Sports Trophies, presented annually by the Southeastern Conference, are symbolic of the league's premier men's and women's athletic programs.

The SEC officially began tabulating points for the Bernie Moore All-Sports Trophy, named for former SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore, following the 1973-74 season. The tabulation of points for the Women's All-Sports Trophy began following the 1983-84 school year. Both trophies were discounted following the 1994 academic year.

Points for the two trophies were awarded on a 12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for all sports. However, beginning in 1991-92 only the top six finishes counted toward an institution's total. If a team was on probation in a sport, the institution was required to count that sport's vacated position among its six. In the event of a tie for a position, the points for the number of places involved were added together, divided by the number of teams involved in the tie and awarded to those teams equally.

H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Awards

Each year the SEC, in conjunction with the USF+G Sugar Bowl, provides the league's male and female H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award winners with a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship. In addition, five other male and female student-athletes each receive $5,000 post-graduate scholarships.

The award recipients are chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from the 12 SEC institutions.

The award is named for former SEC Commissioner H. Boyd McWhorter.

Alabama All-Star Candidates

TOMMY JOHNSON
Senior • Cornerback
5-10 • 180 • Niceville, Fla.

- Emerged as a leader in the Crimson Tide secondary, starting every game of junior campaign and recording a career-high four interceptions, including two in the SEC Championship Game versus Florida.
- Finished the 1993 season with 43 total tackles, eight pass break-ups and one blocked punt.
- Currently boasts seven career interceptions, including one for a touchdown, 89 total tackles and 11 pass break-ups.

JON STEVENSON
Senior • Center
6-3 • 280 • Memphis, Tenn.

- Alabama's only returning starter on the offensive line. Will play the third different position of his career, at center, in 1994. Began as an offensive tackle, moved to right guard last season, and won the top spot at center in 1994's spring drills.
- Played 1,405 career snaps and missed last half of 1993 campaign due to knee injury.
- A former freshman All-America and All-SEC honoree.

MICHAEL PROCTOR
Junior • Placekicker
5-10 • 183 • Pelham, Ala.

- Earned finalist honors for the Lou Groza Award, All-America honors from Football News, and first-team Coaches' All-SEC acclaim last season. Tallied 97 points and a new school record for longest field goal without a kicking tee (53 yarder vs. Ole Miss).
- Led the Tide in scoring the past two seasons, compiling 191 career points, and has converted a string of 66-consecutive PATs. Connected on 41 of 56 field goals and 68 of 69 PATs throughout Alabama career.
- Ranked on per game averages, finished the 1993 season as both the SEC's and nation's top field goal kicker, hitting 22 of 29 attempts (76 percent).

SHERMAN WILLIAMS
Senior • Tailback
5-10 • 193 • Mobile, Ala.

- Despite being hampered by injuries in 1993, started eight of 12 regular-season games and posted a career-high 738 yards and team-high nine touchdowns, returning as the Tide's leading rusher.
- Opened the season with five-straight 100-plus yard rushing games, becoming only the third Tide player to accomplish the feat. During that stint, rushed for 148 yards and one touchdown versus Arkansas, a career-best performance.
- Posted 1,145 yards throughout three-year career to go with 19 touchdowns and a per carry average of 4.7 yards.

Arkansas All-Star Candidates

PAT BAKER
Senior • Offensive Guard
6-3 • 310 • Owasso, Okla.

- Started all 11 games last season after transferring from Northeast Oklahoma Junior College where he earned All-America and All-Conference status.
- Improved dramatically as the season progressed and is being projected as an All-SEC player by the Arkansas coaching staff for the 1994 season.
- Earned the starting nod in 1993 despite having suffered a broken leg in the first two days of his first spring practice.

CARL KIDD
Senior • Free Safety
6-1 • 198 • Pine Bluff, Ark.

- Recorded 53 tackles, the second-highest number among the Arkansas defensive backs last season. Also posted six pass break-ups.
- Earned All-America honors in 1992 at Northeast Oklahoma Junior College before transferring to Arkansas.
- Started all 11 games at free safety last season.

FRANK SANDERS
Senior • Wide Receiver
6-2 • 200 • Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

- Auburn leader in receptions with 48 for 842 yards and six TDs, finishing third in SEC in catches and fourth in the league in receiving yards.
- On receiving end of 4th-and-15, 35-yard TD pass from Patrick Nix in Alabama game and of Stan White's passing record breaker at LSU. Also scored Auburn's final TD against Florida on a reverse.
- His 48 catches is third-highest single-season total in Auburn history, as is his 842 yards receiving. Moved to 10th on Auburn career reception list with 63 total.

SHANNON ROUBIQUE
Junior • Center
6-1 • 278 • Denham Springs, La.

- As a sophomore, established himself as one of the top centers in the SEC and was an all-conference selection by the Birmingham News.
- Started all 11 games in 1993 and has now started 21 of 22 contests in Auburn career, 11 at center and 10 at guard. Played 730 of Auburn's 800 total snaps in 1993.
- Graded 75-percent for the season, including 84 percent versus Mississippi State and 82 percent versus Alabama. Had only six missed assignments all season, only two in last eight games and one in last five games.

CHRIS SHELLING
Senior • Cornerback
5-10 • 180 • Columbus, Ga.

- First-team Birmingham News All-SEC selection and second-team Coaches All-SEC recipient after recording 74 tackles and four interceptions as a junior. Led Auburn defensive backs and ranked among SEC secondary leaders in tackles.
- His 65-yard interception return against Florida set up Auburn's final touchdown, and his 73-yard interception return versus Georgia is among top 10 longest in Auburn history. Averaged 42.3 yards per interception return, an Auburn record for that category in a single season.
- Has now started 22 consecutive games at Auburn, 11 at strong safety in 1992 and 11 more at corner in 1993. Named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against Mississippi State after posting six tackles, one interception and causing a fumble.

Kentucky All-Star Candidates

MARK ASKIN
Senior • Offensive Tackle
6-5 • 295 • Louisville, Ky.

- Kentucky's most experienced returning offensive lineman, having started every game over last two seasons and several games as a freshman.
- As one of three returning starters on the offensive line, helped pave way for Wildcat rushing attack which ranked third in the SEC and 24th in the nation (210.5 yards per game) in 1993.
- Opened holes which allowed Wildcat backs to gain 200+ yards rushing six times and 300+ yards twice last season.
- Received Knoxville News-Sentinel All-SEC Freshman honors in 1991 in addition to being named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for three-straight years.

MOE WILLIAMS
Sophomore • Halfback
6-2 • 205 • Columbus, Ga.

- SEC's leading returning rusher at 84.4 yards per game as a freshman in 1993, which ranked fourth nationally among his class.
- UK's all-time freshman rushing leader, gaining 928 yards on 164 carries.
- Recorded sixth-best rushing season in UK history and posted four 100+ yard performances to become only the second freshman in Wildcat history to accomplish the feat.
- Set UK freshman single-game rushing record with 159 yards against Georgia, the seventh-best rushing total in the SEC in 1993.
- Received second-team AP All-SEC accolades and Knoxville News-Sentinel SEC All-Freshman team honors last season.

MELVIN JOHNSON
Senior • Free Safety
5-11 • 196 • Cincinnati, Ohio

- Kentucky's second-leading returning tackler with 49 total hits a year ago even though he missed the first five games of the 1993 campaign with a broken forearm.
- One of the hardest hitters in the SEC, Johnson earned UK's "Big-Hitter" award following 1994 spring drills after sidelining six Wildcat players with bone-crushing hits during spring practice.
- Started last six contests for Wildcats in 1993, recording double-digit tackles in three of last four games.
- Best game came vs. Tennessee when he was credited with a career-high 13 tackles.
- Also recorded 12 tackles vs. Vanderbilt and Clemson.

RANDY WYATT
Senior • Split End
5-10 • 170 • Paducah, Ky.

- Kentucky's leading returning receiver from a season ago, posting 13 catches for 64 yards, the team's fourth-best catch total in 1993.
- Ignited the Wildcats to a come-back win at South Carolina with a 64-yard TD run from the tailback slot with 11:47 remaining in the contest.
- Used primarily in passing situations after Moe Williams settled in at halfback.
- His 7.2 yards per carry average led Kentucky a year ago.
- Sat out 1992 season after transferring from Louisville.

LSU All-Star Candidates

IVORY HILLIARD
Senior • Free Safety
6-0 • 192 • Patterson, La.

- Moves to free safety in 1994 after logging second-most tackles for a Tiger defensive back (58) from the strong safety position a year ago.
- Named National Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated and SEC Defensive Player of the Week following win at Alabama where he registered nine tackles, intercepted two passes and tallied two sacks.
- Closed 1993 season with 27 tackles, four sacks, five tackles for loss, two interceptions and a pass break up in last four games.
- Posted season-high 13 stops (six solo) in season-opener at Texas A&M with one caused fumble and a fumble recovery.

GABE NORTHERN
Junior • Defensive End
6-3 • 235 • Baton Rouge, La.

- Moved from middle linebacker to defensive end for last four contests of the year, starting two games at that position late last season, both Tiger victories (Ole Miss and Alabama).
- Tallied 41 tackles (24 solos), including one sack and three tackles for loss, including a 10-stop effort vs. Auburn.
- Had an outstanding spring practice at defensive end and was dominant in several full-scale scrimmages, excelling in LSU's four-man front.

EDDIE KENNISON
Sophomore • Flanker
6-0 • 184 • Lake Charles, La.

- Named to the Knoxville News-Sentinel SEC All-Freshman team in 1993 at the all-around position designated "athlete."
- Big play threat every time he touches the ball, returning punts and kickoffs in addition to wide receiver duties.
- Ranked third in the SEC and sixth in the nation in punt returns, sixth in the league in kickoff returns and eighth in all-purpose yards.
- Honored as LSU's ABC-TV MVP for play vs. Miss. State last season: two catches for 45 yards, four punt returns for 78 yards and two kickoff returns for 70 yards.

JAMES HOLCOMBE
Senior • Offensive Tackle
6-2 • 287 • TyTy, Ga.

- A 1993 preseason All-SEC pick who returns for 1994 season after missing last year due to a neck injury.
- One of the strongest Rebel players, Holcombe has the ability to play all five interior line positions and is listed on the preseason depth chart at tackle and center.
- Ended spring as No. 1 tackle, but could move to guard slot by end of preseason drills.

ROELL PRESTON
Senior • Wide Receiver
5-11 • 180 • Miami, Fla.

- Rebels' leading returning receiver after pacing team with 35 catches and finishing second on squad with 455 yards receiving last season.
- Was the only Rebel receiver to catch at least one pass in every outing a year ago, and finished second on the team with three touchdown grabs.
- His 4.38 time in the 40 this spring was a team best.
- Best game of 1993 came vs. Georgia when he caught three passes for 105 yards, including a 49-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence Adams.

Mississippi State All-Star Candidates

BRIAN ANDERSON
Junior • Center
6-5 • 278 • West Point, Miss.

- Selected as the CommuniGroup Offensive Lineman of the Year, an award given annually to the state of Mississippi's top scholar-lineman.
- Bulldogs' regular center throughout the 1993 season, starting all 11 games.
- A rugged performer who played every snap in six of eight SEC outings last season.
- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll with a 3.31 GPA during his sophomore year.

MICHAEL DAVIS
Senior • Running Back
6-1 • 222 • Morton, Miss.

- Enters the 1994 season as the SEC's second-leading returning ball carrier.
- Received honorable mention Football News All-America honors following record-breaking junior season.
- With one year left at MSU, Davis already ranks ninth on MSU's all-time rushing list with 1,792 yards.
- Finished the 1993 campaign as the Bulldog's leading rusher with 883 yards, the most since Walter Packer gained 1,012 yards in 1975.
- Posted a career-high 154 yards rushing on a school-record 40 carries in MSU's season-ending victory over Ole Miss.

South Carolina All-Star Candidates

BRANDON BENNETT
Senior • Running Back
6-0 • 205 • Taylors, S.C.

- Earned second-team Coaches' All-SEC honors in 1993 after rushing for 853 yards on 193 carries and seven TDs. Ranked sixth in the SEC in rushing (77.5) and in all-purpose yardage (114.7).
- Led USC for the third-straight year in rushing and also scored a team-best eight TDs. Also posted 26 receptions for 282 yards.
- Eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark four times in 1993 and is currently ranked 10th on the Gamecock all-time rushing list with 2,201 career yards. Became the first player in USC history to accumulate 100 or more yards rushing and receiving in one game (vs. La. Tech/127 rush-129 rec).

VINCENT DINKINS
Senior • Center
6-2 • 277 • Columbia, S.C.

- Pre-season All-SEC candidate after starting all 11 games at center in 1993. Projected as the anchor of the Gamecock offensive line.
- Started all 11 games in 1992 at left guard.
- Earned the starting nod at left guard in 1991, but suffered a season-ending injury in practice after the first four games.

STACY EVANS
Senior • Defensive End
6-2 • 262 • Laurens, S.C.

- Earned starting position early in 1993 and quickly emerged as a fierce pass rusher, tallying 75 tackles, a team-best eight sacks and 12 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.
- Named SEC Defensive Player of the Week after recording six tackles, two sacks and three QB pressures in the Gamecocks' 22-0 victory over Vanderbilt.
- Earned second-team All-SEC acclaim in 1993, his rookie season with the Gamecocks.

DAVID TURNIPSEED
Senior • Defensive Tackle
6-4 • 257 • Spartanburg, S.C.

- Earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance versus Georgia last seasons, posting seven solo tackles, one tackle for loss, and one quarterback pressure. In that victory he also caused a fumble, and blocked a field goal attempt.
- Played in five games, including four starts, last season before missing the remainder of the year due to surgery to repair a torn tendon in his finger.
- Started all 11 games at defensive end in 1992, and registered a career-best 14 tackles versus Kentucky that season.

Vanderbilt All-Star Candidates

GERALD COLLINS
Senior • Linebacker
6-3 • 248 • St. Louis, Mo.

- The anchor of the Vanderbilt defense, he ranked second on the team in tackles last season with 86 total hits (58 solo, 28 assists).
- Recorded six tackles for loss, two quarterback sacks, five passes broken up, two fumble recoveries and one caused fumble in 1993.
- Made a courageous and successful return to football after missing most of the 1992 season with a life-threatening staph infection.

COLLINS STATS

ERIC LEWIS
Senior • Fullback
6-0 • 210 • Oxford, Ala.

- Moved to fullback during spring practice after starting at wingback the last two seasons.
- Versatile performer who is equally adept at rushing, receiving and blocking.
- Rushed for 174 yards on 22 carries last season for a hefty 7.9 yards per carry average.
- Scored game-clinching touchdown against Wake Forest with a 33-yard scoring run.

OWEN NEIL
Junior • Offensive Tackle
6-5 • 300 • Louisville, Ky.

- Keystone of Vanderbilt's offensive line who has emerged as one of the league's top blockers.
- A two-year starter at left tackle, he was named to USA Today's Fabulous Freshman Team and the All-SEC freshman squad in his first year.
- A key factor in helping the Commodores rank second in the SEC in rushing in 1992 and fourth in the league in 1993.

1993 SEC Championship Game

The SEC staged its second annual Championship Football Game on December 4, 1993, with Eastern Division Champion Florida defeating Western Division winner Alabama 28-13 in front of a crowd of 76,345 at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Gators were led by quarterback Terry Dean, who passed for 256 yards and two touchdowns en route to Championship Game Most Valuable Player honors. After virtually three quarters of neck-and-neck football, and the Gators leading by one, 14-13, Florida was faced with a fourth-and-eight situation. Punter Shayne Edge kept the drive alive with a 20-yard sprint, and on the next play, Dean hit wideout Jack Jackson with a 43-yard strike to give Florida an eight-point cushion. From there, the Florida defense held its ground and the Gators secured the victory.

The victory secured Florida as the host of the USF+G Sugar Bowl. On January 1, 1994, the eighth-ranked Gators defeated West Virginia 41-7 in New Orleans to win their first Sugar Bowl title.

The SEC etched its mark in the college football history books in 1992 with the inaugural game, the first-ever Division IA championship between its two division winners. Alabama defeated Florida in that contest, 28-21, and went on to win the National crown.

Florida quarterback Terry Dean earned Most Valuable Player honors after converting 20 of 37 passes for 256 yards and two touchdowns.

SEC Presence in the NFL

Florida's Emmitt Smith, a first-round draft pick in 1990, earned MVP honors of the 1994 Super Bowl for the Dallas Cowboys.

The 1993 opening day National Football League rosters were highlighted by 178 players from Southeastern Conference schools. All 28 NFL team rosters include at least one player who played college football at an SEC institution. A total of 96 now toil in the National Football Conference (NFC), with a conference-high 11 included on the Philadelphia Eagles' and Green Bay Packers' roster. In addition, 82 players now display their talents in the American Football Conference (AFC), as the Pittsburgh Steelers have a league-high 12 players from SEC institutions.

National Champions

Southeastern Conference teams have won 12 national championships (AP, UPI, Football Writers Association). Alabama headlines the league with seven titles - 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979 and 1992. Tennessee was the first conference squad to capture the national crown in 1951. Auburn ruled supreme in 1957, while LSU followed in 1958. Ole Miss stood atop the land in 1960 and Georgia earned the distinction in 1980. Arkansas, which joined the SEC in 1991, captured the 1964 national title (FWAA).

Tennessee Volunteers (10-1) — 1951 (AP, UPI)

*Appointed Conference Games

While the SEC rule requiring six football games with member schools was in effect, 16 games with outside schools were appointed to serve as conference games to avoid a violation for the members. The won-lost records of these games are included in the annual conference standings, but the results are not included in the conference point totals.

Kentucky's Dicky Lyons ran back kicks for a league-record 235 yards vs. LSU in 1967 and tallied the SEC's fourth-best career kick return mark with 2,253 yards.

Bobby Wilson, a standout performer at Ole Miss from 1946-49, owns a share of the SEC career interceptions record with 20. He returned those thefts for a league-record 379 yards.

Florida quarterback Shane Matthews, the SEC's career passing leader, became the only player in conference history to throw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

Vanderbilt's Kurt Page was the first quarterback in SEC history to pass for more than 3,000 yards in a season. He twice led the league in total offense.

SEC Heisman Trophy Winners

1942 — FRANK SINKWICH Georgia Halfback

Frank Sinkwich became the first player from the Southeastern area to win the coveted Heisman Trophy, winning the award in 1942, the year he led Georgia to an 11-1 record and a 9-0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Sinkwich led the nation in rushing in 1941 and total offense in 1942. His individual performance in the 1942 Orange Bowl (a 40-26 victory over TCU) is still regarded as the best one-man showing in that New Year's Day Classic. Against the Horned Frogs, Sinkwich completed nine of 13 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 139 yards including a 43-yard TD run, for 382 yards of total offense. Nicknamed "Flatfoot Frankie," Sinkwich received his Heisman Trophy while in his Marine uniform. A long-time businessman in Athens, Sinkwich died Oct. 22, 1990.

1959 — BILLY CANNON LSU Halfback

A rare combination of strength and speed, LSU's Billy Cannon became the SEC's second Heisman winner in 1959. In the Tigers' heart-stopping 7-3 win over Ole Miss in 1959, Cannon, who ran the 100-yard dash in 9.4 and threw the shot put 54-4 for the LSU track team, entered his name in college football folklore with an 89-yard punt return in the fourth quarter for the winning points. However, it was a dramatic goal line stand in the final seconds with Cannon making the game-saving tackle that preserved the LSU win. Although renowned for his offensive skills, Cannon's contemporaries claim he was a better defender. He also averaged 40.3 yards per punt as a college star. Cannon had a successful 11-year pro career with the Houston Oilers, Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs. Today, Cannon is a dentist in Baton Rouge.

1966 — STEVE SPURRIER Florida Quarterback

Another skilled all-around player, Florida's Steve Spurrier earned his Heisman Trophy in 1966, edging Purdue's Bob Griese for the coveted award. In his Gator career, Spurrier completed 392 of 692 for 4,848 yards and 37 touchdowns, while rushing for 442 yards. He led his 1966 Gator team to a 9-2 record, including a 27-12 victory over Georgia Tech in the 1967 Orange Bowl. However, it was the 1966 Sugar Bowl that enhanced Spurrier's image nationwide, when he led a fourth-quarter rally against Missouri which fell two points shy. Trailing 20-0 entering the final period, Spurrier led the Gators to three touchdowns; unfortunately for Florida all three attempts at two point plays were unsuccessful. As a professional, Spurrier played for the San Francisco 49ers, Minnesota Vikings and Tampa Bay Bucs. He now serves as the head coach at his alma mater.

SEC Heisman Trophy Winners

1971 — PAT SULLIVAN Auburn Quarterback

In his brilliant three-year career at Auburn, Pat Sullivan guided an offensive team that averaged 34.4 points and 425.8 yards per game. While a junior, he led the nation in total offense with 285.6 yards per game before going on to win the Heisman his senior year. Sullivan became the first Heisman recipient ever to play at a school where John Heisman (for whom the trophy is named) coached. In his three-year career, Sullivan accounted for 71 touchdowns (18 running and 53 passing) for a then-national record. Winner of the MVP Award in the 1971 Gator Bowl, Sullivan went on to play professionally for the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers. After serving as president of his own tire company in Birmingham, Ala., and color analyst on the Auburn Radio Network, he returned to Auburn in 1986 to serve as an assistant coach to Pat Dye. He enters his third season as head coach at TCU in 1994.

1982 — HERSCHEL WALKER Georgia Tailback

Georgia's Herschel Walker, third in the Heisman voting in 1980 and second in 1981, continued his progression toward the trophy in 1982, winning easily over Stanford's John Elway. Leading the Bulldogs to a three-year record of 33-3, including a perfect 12-0 National Championship season in 1980, Walker finished third on the all-time rushing list in the NCAA with a three-year total of 5,259 yards, finishing behind Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett (6,082) and Southern Cal's Charles White (5,598), both of whom needed four years to reach their figures. During his Georgia career, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 SEC records, and 30 Georgia records. He also starred at track, running a 10.1 100-meter dash and a 6.18 60-yard dash. Walker is now playing professional football with the Philadelphia Eagles after playing with the Dallas Cowboys, Minnesota Vikings and the New Jersey Generals in the USFL.

1985 — BO JACKSON Auburn Tailback

A gifted athlete, Auburn's Vincent "Bo" Jackson became the sixth SEC player to claim the Heisman Trophy, winning the award over Iowa's Chuck Long in the closest balloting ever. Rarely have the nation's sports fans witnessed such a talented player. He became the Southeastern Conference's first three-sport letterman in two decades, claiming monograms in football, baseball and track.

As a football player, Jackson gained 4,303 yards in his career, averaging 6.6 yards per carry, an SEC record. During his Auburn career, Jackson was MVP in four different bowl games, winning honors for his play in the Tangerine, Sugar, Liberty and Cotton Bowl.

During his Heisman-winning season, Jackson led the SEC in rushing (162.4 yards per game), scoring (102 points), and all-purpose running (169.0 yards per game).

Continuing his multi-sport pursuits as a professional, Jackson plays baseball for the California Angels. He earned MVP honors at the 1990 Major League All-Star Game while playing for the Kansas City Royals. A hip injury ended his football career in 1991 after playing with the Los Angeles Raiders.

CFA Academic Achievement Award Winners

The College Football Association Academic Achievement Award is presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis, Tenn., to the school with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team.

Kentucky captured the SEC's first award in 1989 by graduating 90 percent of its incoming class of 1983. UK reported that 18 of 20 football players who began classes in 1983 completed degree requirements.

Half of the league's member institutions have earned honorable mention distinction since 1987, including Florida, Kentucky, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. In 1994 Kentucky, Mississippi State and Vanderbilt received honorable mention status for registering graduation reports of 70 percent or higher.

According to CFA survey results, the overall graduation rate of its member schools has shown a significant increase in the last several years. In 1986 the CFA membership graduated 41.6 percent of its football players, compared to a rate of 57.9 percent in 1994.

A complete listing of Academic Achievement winners follows:

BOWL COALITION INFORMATION

Sugar, Cotton and Orange bowls will select, in order of the rank of their host teams, from a pool of five teams: Notre Dame, ACC Champion, Big East Champion, and two at-large teams (ACC, Big East, Big Eight, Pac-10 and SWC). Fiesta Bowl will choose from the remaining pool of teams. The Gator (one team) and Hancock (two teams) bowls will select the three remaining teams.

SEC Bowl Notes

• At least half of the SEC's membership participated in a bowl game in 11 of the last 13 seasons. Overall, the SEC has posted a nation-high 244 bowl invitations, 83 more than the second place Southwest Conference. Only four times since 1980 has a conference produced more bowl teams in a given year than the SEC.

• Alabama and Georgia, as well as former SEC member Georgia Tech, are three of only four schools to win all four major bowl games (Rose, Sugar, Orange and Cotton). Notre Dame is the only other school to complete the grand slam. Alabama, which holds the national record for most bowl appearances (46), most victories (26) and consecutive appearances (26) is the only school to win each of the majors at least twice.

• The SEC has had seven bowl teams in a season on three occasions. Most recently, the conference was represented by seven teams following both the 1982 and 1983 seasons, in addition to the 1974 campaign.

1983	1982	1974
Alabama-Sun	Alabama-Liberty	Alabama-Orange
Auburn-Sugar	Auburn-Tangerine	Auburn-Gator
Florida-Gator	Florida-Bluebonnet	Florida-Sugar
Georgia-Cotton	Georgia-Sugar	Georgia-Tangerine
Kentucky-Hall of Fame	LSU-Orange	Miss. State-Sun
Ole Miss-Independence	Tennessee-Peach	Tennessee-Liberty
Tennessee-Citrus	Vanderbilt-Hall of Fame	Vanderbilt-Peach

• On eight different occasions, current members of the SEC have competed against one another in bowl games. Ole Miss leads the pack with five bowls against conference foes and Auburn is next with three. Florida, LSU and Tennessee have each squared off against SEC teams twice, while Alabama and Vanderbilt have once. A complete list of SEC vs. SEC bowl games follows:

1955 Gator Bowl- Vanderbilt 25, Auburn 13	1965 Liberty Bowl - Ole Miss 13, Auburn 7
1958 Gator Bowl- Ole Miss 7, Florida 3	1969 Gator Bowl- Florida 14, Tennessee 13
1960 Sugar Bowl- Ole Miss 21, LSU 0	1971 Gator Bowl- Auburn 35, Ole Miss 28
1964 Sugar Bowl- Alabama 12, Ole Miss 7	1972 Bluebonnet Bowl - Tennessee 24, LSU 17

• During the decade of the 1980s the SEC was the only conference to have every member participate in a bowl game. In addition, nine of the league's 10 schools played in at least two postseason events. Overall the SEC led all conferences during the decade with 56 bowl appearances. The Big Ten was second with 45 as the Southwest and Pac Ten tied for third with 35. The Big Eight (31), Atlantic Coast (25) and Western Athletic (21) rounded out the list.

• During the decade of the 1980s the SEC also posted more bowl victories than any other conference. Member institutions won 29 bowl games, while the Pac Ten and Big Ten followed with 22 and 21 respectively. Other victory totals during the decade were as follows: Atlantic Coast (15), Big Eight (13), Southwest (13) and Western Athletic (nine).

SEC BOWL REVENUE DISTRIBUTION

- (A) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of less than $2,000,000 (two million), the participating institution shall retain the first $500,000 plus 20 percent of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 13 equal shares with two shares to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions. (Participating institution does not share in the distribution of shares.)
- (B) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of more than $2,000,000 (two million), the participating institution shall retain the first $700,000 plus 20 percent of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 13 equal shares with two shares to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions. (Participating institution does not share in the distribution of shares.)

NOTE: Poll was compiled by Charles Woodroof, former SEC Assistant Director of Media Relations. The AP (Writers and Broadcasters) Poll began in 1936. From 1936 to 1961 the wire service ranked 20 teams. From 1962 to 1967 only 10 teams were recognized. From 1968 to 1988 AP again resumed its Top 20 before expanding to 25 teams in 1989. Points were awarded based on a team's finish in the final AP poll each year. Points were awarded on a 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis from 1936 to 1988, and a 25-24-23-22-21-20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for 1989 to 1993.

SEC Licensing Program

The Southeastern Conference markets its registered marks (Southeastern Conference, SEC, SEC Seal and SEC logos) through a licensing program with Collegiate Concepts, Inc. The SEC began its licensing program in 1988 to protect the use of its name and insignias and to ensure that its member institutions benefit from the use and sale of items bearing its name and/or logos.

The program also ensures that manufacturers and retailers market only the highest-quality merchandise using the conference name and logos. The SEC has joined a consortium of universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially-licensed collegiate products.

In addition to the SEC, Collegiate Licensing of Atlanta administers the programs for more than 100 universities and 10 bowls, including the USF&G Sugar Bowl. The objectives of the consortium are to assure that the names and logos of the members are protected and that the members receive their fair share of revenues generated and that, alumni, students and supporters can easily recognize authorized merchandise.

Consumers can tell if the merchandise is authorized by looking for the label which says, "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products."

Corporate Marketing Program

Several of the nation's most prestigious corporations have joined with the Southeastern Conference in supporting intercollegiate athletics.

Begun in 1988, the SEC Corporate Marketing Program allows these corporations to join with the conference as partners in furthering the role of athletics in higher education.

Each member of the SEC corporate marketing team shows its commitment to the future of intercollegiate athletics with contributions to SEC Drug Education programs, SEC Youth Clinics, SEC Scholarship Programs and SEC Academic Enhancement Programs.

The corporations also conduct consumer promotions designed to increase public awareness of the member institutions of the SEC, which in turn supports increased ticket sales and high television and radio ratings.

In addition to the broad spectrum of benefits provided by these contributions, each SEC institution is a direct beneficiary of the program.

Current Corporate Marketing partners with the SEC include Buffalo Rock (Dr. Pepper), First Alabama Bank, Gatorade, General Mills, Golden Flake Snack Foods, Hardee's, HealthSouth, Russell Athletic, Texaco and Toyota.
